

Lt. Elmer Proctor and daughter Rebecca Ann, Port Arthur, Texas, happy reunion. A bomber pilot, Lt. Proctor was shot down over Germany and returned to this country about the 15th of April. He is presently

S/Sgt. Floyd M. Chadwick, Chickasha, Okla., displays flag captured during fighting in Italy, as he recovers from wounds. "I think all the boys in my outfit bought bonds," he said recently. "We will have substantial

Pvt. W. H. Edwards, Hayti, Mo., glad he can still buy War Bonds for wife and six children while awaiting artificial leg. He lost his leg in European action. Nazi wired him as a

...to southern England, to Camp Blandford, a Limey camp for British officers. It was here we learned to be a fast-moving unit which brought us praise and distinction in the Third Army during the campaign across France, Germany and Austria.

(Continued on Page 12)

pass sector of Luzon picked up Japanese leaflets reading: "To dear American soldier—You are fighting courageously and suppose you believe you having victory. But you are wrong. Japanese forces have not yet even started fighting."

	meat slaughtered for them for sale, OPA explained.	Chinese reach Taichow along coast.
	Alfalfa hay may be seeded in the spring, or late summer . . . late August and early September seedings seem to escape summer weeds and some farmers have been successful either time.	Some drop in wage level expected after the war
		Yanks find Nazi cashadium.

